Welcome to Vintage Wine Co.

Based in Melbourne, we are proud to be one of Victoria’s leading distributors of premium wines. Independently owned and operated, Vintage Wine Co is led by General Manager Todd Lichti, alongside Domestic Operations Manager Krisdianne Shimmin and International Operations Manager Nick Dodds. Together, they guide a passionate and experienced team dedicated to delivering exceptional service and building long-term partnerships. We pride ourselves on a diverse portfolio of fine wines, spanning exclusive imports and standout local producers, many of which have earned top accolades from the world’s most respected critics. Over half of the Australian wineries we represent are consistently rated among the best in their regions, with numerous five-star ratings in James Halliday’s Wine Companion. We’re excited to welcome several new wineries to the portfolio, each bringing a distinct sense of place and character. GKLR, based in Heathcote, Victoria, was established on the Cambrian soils of the Mount Camel Range, where a geology-led approach sees Italian varietals carefully matched to site. This hands-on philosophy in both vineyard and winery results in wines that are bright, textural, and deeply expressive of their unique environment. From Sicily, Lu Celu captures the warmth and energy of the Mediterranean, where intense sunlight and cooling sea breezes shape vibrant, balanced wines. Sourced from select vineyard sites across the island, each with its own soils and microclimate, the wines reflect both the diversity of the landscape and a commitment to working in harmony with nature. In Tuscany, San Polo in Montalcino delivers refined, site-driven expressions of Sangiovese. Vineyards sit between 400–450 metres on galestro-rich soils, naturally limiting yields and enhancing concentration, structure, and aromatic precision. A meticulous approach to parcelling allows each site to be managed individually, while organic viticulture and a sustainably designed, state-of-the-art winery reinforce a clear focus on quality and terroir. These additions sit seamlessly alongside many long-standing favourites. At Vintage Wine Co, we go beyond supplying premium wines. We offer personalised support to help your business thrive, from building profitable wine lists and tailored promotional materials to hosting engaging winemaker events. If you’re looking for a distributor with premium products, local knowledge, and a friendly, experienced team based right here in Melbourne Vintage Wine Co is here for you.

Nestled on a picturesque stretch of rolling hills, just five minutes from the world-famous Bells Beach, Bellbrae Estate Winery boasts a rich history and a scenic location. The Geelong region was first planted with grapevines 150 years ago by Swiss settlers, but the area's wine industry was devastated by Phylloxera in the 1870s. More recently, Bellbrae Estate took advantage of the region's wonderful climate and enticing north-facing slopes, planting the first vineyards here in over a century. Each Bellbrae Estate wine is named after a famous surf break in the Bells Beach area along our iconic Surf Coast region. With founder Richard MacDougall's Swiss heritage, the winery brings the story of the region's viticulture full circle.

Simon Steele joined Bellbrae Estate in January 2024, following nine successful years as Head Winemaker at Medhurst in the Yarra Valley. Prior to that, Simon served as Senior Winemaker at Brokenwood in the Hunter Valley and Winemaker at Shadowfax, focusing on Geelong and the Macedon Ranges. His experience includes numerous vintages in Burgundy, Spain and McLaren Vale. Simon brings energy and dedication to farming Bellbrae Estate's 7 hectares more sustainably, incorporating biological farming practices, reducing chemical inputs and eliminating insecticides. Under his stewardship, the vineyards are cultivated to enhance their natural strengths and reflect the unique terroir.

The Bellbrae range thrives on north-facing slopes of calcareous marl over limestone. Moderate fertility and the dry, windy site provide ideal conditions for producing wines of remarkable detail, poise and power. Naturally low yields ensure the wines have the structure to age gracefully under Simon's attentive care.

In 1995, Joch Bosworth took over the family's 77-hectare vineyard, transforming it into one of McLaren Vale's first certified organic vineyards. The winery, established in 2001 by Joch and Louise Hemsley-Smith, embodies a dedication to organic farming and the production of wines that reflect the purity and character of their region. Joch's commitment to organic principles began with an increasing sense of discomfort about using synthetic chemicals on his soils. The benign Mediterranean climate of McLaren Vale is well suited to old fashioned organic farming techniques. Battle of Bosworth produces balanced, single vineyard wines with power and elegance that best express the qualities and characteristics of the site.

Greg Follett of Lake Breeze Wines created Bull Ant, a delightful range of approachable, drink-now wines, crafted using fruit from the Follett family vineyard. Greg and his family have been growing grapes on this site in Langhorne Creek for 130 years. The playful label was inspired by the bull ants that are known to pester vineyard workers. Langhorne Creek is celebrated for its full-bodied red wines and well-balanced, fruit-driven Chardonnay. The Bull Ant range consistently over-delivers, showcasing vibrant fruit flavours, palate richness, and exceptional value.

Langhorne Creek benefits from a cool maritime climate, allowing long slow ripening and intensely flavoured fruit. A minimal intervention approach is taken with all of the wines, with most receiving no filtration or fining at all. With the small amount of fining undertaken, they have a commitment to avoid using any animal-based fining agents. All wines produced by Lake Breeze, including the Bull Ant label, are vegan friendly.

Eden Hall is a boutique winery owned by David and Mardi Hall in the picturesque Eden Valley, with 33 hectares under vine. The estate combines exceptional viticulture with a deep commitment to sustainability, earning recognition across the South Australian wine industry for its environmental leadership. Led by viticulturalist and fourth-generation Barossa grower Dan Falkenberg, Eden Hall operates off-grid using a large solar and battery system and focuses on building soil health and biodiversity. Native grasses are planted between vineyard rows, compost is produced on site, straw mulch is used to reduce water use, and sheep graze the vineyards in winter and spring to minimise emissions and soil compaction.

EKIN Wine Co. was born from the grassroots passion of two vineyard veterans, Brad and Mark—wine people first, business people by necessity. In the thick of the 2021 vintage, they found themselves harvesting far beyond expectations, with high-quality fruit at risk of being left to waste. Refusing to let good grapes go unused, the duo sprang into action. What began as a favour for mates turned into something bigger: a wine label forged from camaraderie, hustle, and deep respect for the vineyards they help bring to life. EKIN is a tribute to mateship, ingenuity, and the kind of hands-on experience you can't buy.

Their approach to wine is refreshingly real—rooted in practical knowledge, honest work, and a genuine love of the land. Rather than being driven by boardrooms or branding agencies, EKIN is fuelled by early mornings, dirty boots, and the satisfaction of helping fellow growers thrive. Brad and Mark have built EKIN on the foundations of community and connection, proving that when you combine decades of vineyard know-how with a bit of entrepreneurial spark, you can create something truly special.

GKLR was established in 2016 when Gerard Kennedy and Lucy Runnalls purchased a site on the Mount Camel range in Colbinabbin, within the Heathcote wine region. Set on ancient Cambrian soils, the vineyard reflects Gerard’s background in geology, with varieties carefully matched to specific soil profiles to enhance site expression and wine quality.

The vineyard is planted to a mix of varieties, with a strong focus on Italian grapes that thrive in the Colbinabbin climate. With a hands-on approach in both the vineyard and winery, GKLR produces wines that are bright, vibrant and expressive, showcasing the unique character of this distinctive site.

Ingram Road is an exciting range of wines from Helen's Hill, crafted by winemaker Scott McCarthy. These wines are created using traditional winemaking techniques, featuring premium fruit sourced from select vineyards in the Yarra Valley and Heathcote—renowned regions celebrated for their exceptional terroir. Small-batch production, open-top fermenters, French oak maturation, wild fermentation, and meticulous handcrafting are hallmarks of the Ingram Road range, ensuring boutique-quality wines in every bottle.

The Yarra Valley was Victoria's first wine growing region with a history spanning 170 years. It is divided into two sub-regions. Valley floor and Upper Yarra. The Valley floor includes Coldstream where the Helen's Hill and Ingram Road vineyards are located. Slightly warmer than its counterpart, vineyards on the valley floor are planted on rolling hills of predominantly sandy clay-loam soils with an elevation ranging between 50 to 80 metres above sea level. Best known for its sparkling wines, Chardonnay, and Pinot Noir, making it the perfect home for Ingram Road.

Helen's Hill

Yarra Valley, Victoria

Est. 1997

Guided by Mother Nature and driven by passion, Helen's Hill is a Halliday 5 Red Star winery located in Coldstream in the heart of the Yarra Valley. The estate spans more than 150 acres of vineyard at the mouth of the valley, with varying elevations and aspects that create a diverse range of microclimates. These unique sites allow the team to match each grape variety to its ideal position, producing wines that express the distinctive character of the Yarra Valley.

Founded by Allan and Robyn, who carefully searched the region for a site with the right combination of hills, soils and climate, Helen's Hill today produces wines across three labels. The Ingram Road range focuses on generous, fruit-forward wines designed for immediate enjoyment, while the Helen's Hill Estate wines highlight the finest blocks across the vineyard and are crafted with structure and complexity to reward cellaring. The Single Clone Pinot Noir Project explores the nuances of different Pinot Noir clones grown on the property, while the Winemaker's Reserve wines represent the pinnacle of the vineyard and winemaking program.

The philosophy in both vineyard and winery is centred on sustainability, minimal intervention and respect for site. Fruit is carefully selected from specific rows and hand-picked before being fermented in small batches, often in French oak barrels. Each parcel is assessed individually, with only the finest barrels selected for the final blends.

Under the guidance of winemaker Scott McCarthy, the goal is simple: balance. By harvesting fruit at optimal ripeness and allowing the vineyard to guide the process, the wines showcase purity, structure and the unmistakable character of the Helen's Hill estate.

Est. 1890

The Kay Brothers vineyards grace the rolling foothills of the Southern Mount Lofty Ranges in South Australia. Established in 1890 by Australian-born brothers Herbert and Frederick Kay, the heritage-listed winery celebrated its first grape crush in 1895 and remains the oldest McLaren Vale winery still in founding family hands. Today, the Kay family continues their winemaking traditions in the historic cellars. Third-generation Colin Kay retired in 2014, passing the reins to his daughter, Elspeth. Colin, however, still enjoys tasting and observing how Duncan Kennedy is shaping the family's iconic wines.

Pictured on the left, Block 6 Shiraz is a cornerstone of Kay Brothers' legacy. Planted in 1892, this 1.5-hectare vineyard produces full-bodied Shiraz with remarkable structure and the ability to age gracefully for decades. The 1.5-hectare vineyard thrives on diverse soils—red loam, heavy clay, and gravelly alluvium—underpinned by the complex “South Maslin Sands” geology. Its vines are cane-pruned and carefully maintained to suit the vineyard's natural undulations and east-facing aspect.

To preserve these venerable vines, the team employs Layering, a technique where new vines are grown from neighbouring “mother vines” via an “umbilical cord,” which naturally decays over time. Winter brings the art of hand-pruning each vine to its unique growth habits, while spring shoot thinning ensures concentrated fruit. Every grape is hand-picked to protect the fragile, century-old vines. Fermented in the original open-top fermenters, Block 6 Shiraz showcases deep complexity, vibrant intensity, and a timeless connection to Kay Brothers' rich winemaking heritage.

Installed in the 1928 vintage, the Celestin Coq & Cie basket press replaced older hydraulic and manual screw presses that had proven unreliable. Today, it remains the preferred press of winemaker Duncan and continues to reflect the traditional winemaking philosophy at Kay Brothers.

The basket press allows the grapes to be pressed gently, producing cleaner juice and softer tannins as the juice naturally filters through the mass of grape pulp while draining through the basket. Although the process is labour intensive and time consuming, Kay Brothers believe the extra care results in superior wine quality.

JJ Hahn embodies six generations of Barossa Valley heritage. Maria and Johann Christian Hahn arrived in the Barossa Valley in 1845, part of the wave of Silesian-German settlers who helped shape the region. Like many early settlers, they secured premium farmland, laying the foundations for what would become a long family connection to viticulture. Founded on land secured by early Barossa settlers in 1914, the Hahn family established deep roots in the region, with the property fully planted to vines by 1970 and grape growing becoming a way of life across six generations. In 1997, James and Jackie Hahn expanded this legacy by launching their own range of red wines in partnership with renowned Barossa winemaker Rolf Binder, marking the beginning of the JJ Hahn label. Following the Hahns' retirement in 2010, Rolf retained co-ownership while continuing to oversee winemaking and vineyard management. In 2023, leadership transitioned to Thomas White, who has been crafting the wines since 2021, with Rolf remaining involved in vintage oversight and blending..

The Follett family have been grape growers in Langhorne Creek for over 130 years and winemakers since 1987, rapidly building an enviable reputation for consistently producing outstanding wines.

Lake Breeze selects only the finest 40% of fruit from the property's older vines, crafting wines with remarkable depth of flavour. All wines produced by Lake Breeze, including the Bull Ant label, are proudly vegan-friendly. At Lake Breeze, a minimal intervention approach is embraced, with most wines undergoing no filtration or fining, allowing the natural qualities of the fruit to shine.

As part of the fourth generation to work on the family property, winemaker Greg has notched up 33 vintages and an impressive array of Trophies and awards at Lake Breeze. Most notable including the Max Schubert Trophy, Best Red at the Adelaide Wine Show (twice) and producer of the year at the Langhorne Creek Wine Show on seven occasions. Their most recent achievement was being named the Best Value Winery of the Year in the 2022 Halliday Wine Companion. "The Follett family is privileged to a deep history; the family has been tending its vines on the shores of Lake Alexandrina since the 1880s and picking up hundreds of trophies and gold medals in major wine shows across the country for decades. They are fabulous ambassadors for an oft-neglected region and embody the heart and soul that we all love about Australian winemaking. It's a bonus that their wines also happen to represent some of the best value in the country."

Lake Breeze Winery is nestled on the banks of the Bremer River, surrounded by majestic river red gums and overlooking the sprawling 90-hectare Follett family vineyard. Managed by Tim Follett, the vineyards produce consistently exceptional fruit, which winemaker Greg Follett uses to craft outstanding wines. The old vines at Lake Breeze are dry-grown, relying on the traditional winter flooding of the Bremer River, which originates from rainfall in the Mount Lofty Ranges. This natural flooding is essential for sustaining the vines through Langhorne Creek's dry summers, where annual rainfall averages just 350mm. Flooding is managed using a system of floodgates and banks that channel the river's winter flow onto the vineyards. The water saturates the soil over one to two days before being released to neighbouring properties. This process deposits nutrient-rich silt, maintaining soil fertility and enhancing the water-holding capacity of the alluvial silty loam, ensuring the vines thrive without supplementary irrigation.

Longboard Wines are produced by Bellbrae Estate Winery which was established in 1999 on a beautiful section of rolling hills, five minutes from world famous Bells Beach, in the Surf Coast region of Victoria. The Longboard range of wines are a true expression of the region. Winemaker Simon Steele sources most of the fruit from the estate vineyard, with the exception being Pinot Gris, which is sourced from a premium grower in Bendigo. The wines are made using old world techniques, wild ferment, time on lees and aging in old French oak but are ready to drink now. They are all bursting with freshness and taste, perfect for the relaxed lifestyle loved on the Surf Coast.

The Surf Coast Area of Geelong enjoys a slightly milder climate overall than other of the Geelong viticultural region. Being so close to Bass Strait, Bellbrae Estate experiences a maritime influence that reduces the risk of frost in Spring provides more even temperature ranges in Summer – ideal growing conditions for producing elegant wines that retain their natural acidity

The Lightfoot family are one of the original growers and winemakers in Gippsland, first planting vines back in 1995. Brothers Rob and Tom Lightfoot now lead a progressive team in the vineyard and winery, crafting wines that not only speak of the site and the season, but also their enthusiasm to make a diversity of styles. Their Myrtle Point Vineyard is planted on a finger of limestone jutting out of the foothills of the Great Dividing Range and forming a plateau above the Mitchell River valley.

Lightfoot

Gippsland, Victoria

Est. 1995

Nestled in the Gippsland Lakes district, Lightfoot Wines are shaped by the region's cool coastal climate. The vineyard sits on a unique ancient limestone ridge with rich Terra Rossa top soil. The site benefits from the proximity of Bass Strait, and a rain shadow cast by the Great Dividing Range. Fruit ripens with less impact from Gippsland's typically high rainfall. The Myrtle Point Vineyard was established with a desire to combine biological farming and traditional winemaking. This approach and their distinctive site has positioned Lightfoot Wines as a standard-bearer for the region, producing wines of character, drinkability, and a distinct Gippsland identity.

The core of the Lightfoot wines range is the Myrtle Point Vineyard. Single Vineyard wines crafted to be approachable and express the unique quality of the fruit grown in the Myrtle Point Vineyard. The wines showcase the cool, coastal climate and a distinctive Gippsland style.

The single block wines are made from the best fruit, selected from the best blocks within the Myrtle Point Vineyard. Only made in the vintages where the quality is high enough. Small batches, picked and vinified as individual parcels. These wines show additional layers of complexity, structure and cellaring potential.

The limited release wines show Lightfoot's more playful side, and the creative outlet for the winemaking team. Small-batch wines that explore winemaking techniques, experimental blends, ferments and styles. Made in very limited quantities.

"Planting our first vines in 1995 was just the beginning. Over the years, we've transformed the way we approach viticulture. The biggest change? Moving from a traditional mindset to biological farming. It's a shift driven by our commitment to quality and sustainability. Now, it's not just about the fruit—these days it starts with the soil. By using compost, mulch, and natural inputs like fish and seaweed emulsions, we've created a healthier soil ecosystem. This means stronger vines, better resilience, and fruit that truly reflects the land it comes from." Tom Lightfoot, Viticulturalist & Winemaker

Mount Avoca

Pyrenees, Victoria

Est. 1970

Mount Avoca is Australia's most highly awarded certified organic winery, proudly based in Victoria's Pyrenees region. Founded in 1970 by John and Arda Barry, the estate has more than 50 years of heritage, with every wine estate grown, made and bottled on site. Originally planted to Shiraz and Cabernet, the cool-climate vineyard produces small quantities of intensely flavoured fruit that is handcrafted into wines with strong varietal character and regional expression. Today, the winery is run by Matthew Barry and sons, continuing the family legacy with a focus on sustainability and quality.

Winemaker David Darlow brings more than 20 years of international experience across Europe, the US, New Zealand and Australia. His background as both a fine wine retailer and chef influences his detailed and thoughtful approach to viticulture and winemaking. The estate range is now certified vegan friendly as well as certified organic.

The Pyrenees Wine Region remains one of Victoria's hidden gems, known for producing wines with depth, individuality and character. While often understated and under the radar, the region consistently delivers exceptional quality, shaped by its rugged natural beauty and unique climate.

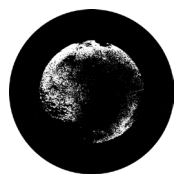

Mount Avoca's organic philosophy began in the 1990s with the introduction of native Australian insects to naturally control pests in the vineyard. Over time, the winery moved away from chemical sprays and fungicides, embracing a completely natural approach to viticulture. After tasting organic and biodynamic wines from around the world, Matthew Barry recognised that organic farming produced wines with greater vitality, purity and energy. For Mount Avoca, certification became a natural extension of a long-standing commitment to growing the highest quality fruit and crafting wines with purity of flavour and minimal intervention.

The Oscar's Folly story is in the name. Growing up surrounded by vines and learning the way of Mother Nature, young Oscar always had a nagging suspicion that he could do this 'wine thing' different. Do it better. His Dad disagreed. "These are the way things have always been done. Why change something that's been working for so many years? It's folly, your head is up in the stars again, son." Oscar stuck to his guns, but took onboard a few things his old man told him; using some old techniques and blending them with some new. Oscar's Folly is the achievement of a boyhood dream. Quality wine with a sustainable edge. Fruit for Oscar's Folly is sourced from the beautiful Helen's Hill Vineyards in the Yarra Valley

RICCA TERRA Riverland, South Australia
Est. 2003

In 2003 Ashley and Holly Ratcliff purchased a small 8-hectare vineyard in the Riverland, South Australia. The vineyard was named Ricca Terra (Italian for Rich Earth). The soils found throughout the vineyard are very fertile red earth over limestone. Ricca Terra's core philosophy is to align climatic conditions with alternate grape varieties to allow for sustainable farming and crafting of premium quality and vegan friendly wines.

The vision to evolve a traditionally planted vineyard into one that could adapt to extreme climatic changes goes beyond grape variety selection. The adoption of drought tolerant rootstocks, water saving mulches and new viticultural techniques and technology allow Ricca Terra to grow grapes and make premium wine with minimal inputs and a limited environmental footprint. Today, Ricca Terra's spread of vineyards is in excess of 70Ha. They have over 30 different varieties planted and are one of the largest producers of climate adaptive grape varieties in South Australia.

Ashley Ratcliff has always been passionate about the wine industry. His vision to create a sustainable future for Ricca Terra has resulted in him winning many accolades including Innovative Vineyard of the Year (Young Guns of Wine) Gourmet Traveller Viticulturalist of the Year, Riverland Winemaker of the Year & Best Wineries of the Region by James Halliday.

The 'Soldier's Land' range is a project close to Ashley's heart. These wines are made from vineyards established during the Soldiers Settlement Scheme post WW1 & WW2. He has saved these ancient vines and donated a portion of proceeds from the sale of these wines to the RSL.

"We're challenging the norm in a region known for bulk production. And we are showing that the Riverland is a premium winegrowing region." – Ashley Ratcliff

"If you're looking for something different, and interesting, look no further. This winery is one of the first wineries that I would recommend. It is because every wine in the (well-priced) range here makes you stop and think and appreciate it for its charm, its alternative flavour profile, its confident drinkability. This here is a champion of alternative varieties." Campbell Mattinson, Halliday Wine Companion

The name Paper Mache embodies the brand's philosophy of creating 'art' by blending ideas, materials, and collaboration. The wines of Paper Mache are crafted from a diverse range of vineyards, regions, and opportunities across South Australia. Some are limited releases, often the result of fortunate finds such as exceptional bulk wines or clean-skins, produced by highly skilled winemakers and close collaborators. Others are made from grapes sourced from carefully selected vineyards across various regions.

The Light Red is a unique blend of Tempranillo, Shiraz, and Black Muscat, all sourced from the Riverland, combines familiar elements with a rare twist. While Tempranillo and Shiraz are often found in light red blends, the inclusion of Black Muscat imparts distinctive floral aromas that elevate the wine's fragrance. Fermented in stainless steel to preserve freshness, the goal was to create a zippy, versatile wine that can be enjoyed chilled. The result is a light cherry-coloured wine with negromi and cola aromatics. The absence of harsh tannins allow this wine to be enjoyed at both room and chilled temperature.

Stage Door Wine Co has been the result of a long work-in-progress. A privately owned South Australian wine business, founded in 2013 by Graeme Thredgold, whose long history in both music and the brewing and wine industries inspired this range. SDWCo takes the passion and flair of the music and wine industries, and combines them to produce a range of premium wines with individual expression of place and time.

Phil Lehmann Youngest son of the late, great Peter Lehmann, makes the wines for SDWCo just down the road at Moppa Vintners. With an upbringing steeped in Barossa wine, Phil ventured out gaining a wealth of experience making wine all over the world before coming back his iconic home turf. Phil is passionate about making great wine while respecting the land, achieving the right balance with attention to sustainability and climate.

The fruit for Stage Door Wine Co. is sourced predominantly from the family-owned vineyard in the Eden Valley, established in 1996 with plantings of Riesling, Shiraz, and Cabernet Sauvignon. Further additions of Grüner Veltliner in 2014 were followed by the inclusion of several hand-selected, super-premium

Spring Seed Wines are made from organic grapes grown in the Bosworth's family's vineyard, located in the premium wine region of McLaren Vale, South Australia. First planted in the early 1970s by Peter and Anthea Bosworth, the vineyards are now run by their son Joch and his partner Louise Hemsley-Smith, who began the conversion to organic viticulture in 1995. Spring Seed Wines are single vineyard wines that best express the unique characteristics of our foothills site, in a fresh, balanced style which appeals to wine lovers everywhere. Traditional vinification and natural minimal processing, combined with organic viticulture helps us capture the purity, integrity and flavour of our vineyard.

Springs Road is a vineyard and winery on Kangaroo Island just off the coast of South Australia. Springs Road runs east to west across the northern part of KI with the vineyard established in 1994 on a small sheep farm about 7km west of Kingscote. In 2016 Joch Bosworth and Louise Hemsley-Smith from McLaren Vale's organic Battle of Bosworth wines purchased the vineyards, opening a cellar door and releasing their first KI wines under the Springs Road label at the end of 2018. The wines are hand-made and estate grown. The Springs Road label is adapted from Louis Freycinet's 1808 map of Southern Australia 'Terre Napoleon'.

Kangaroo Island Is one of the five regions that make up the Fleurieu Zone and was officially registered as a wine region by Geographic Indication in the year 2000. It is a cool-climate region with regular maritime breezes playing an important role in moderating the ample sunshine and allowing for a long, cool ripening season. The vineyard is on a special site in a very special place. It has a unique combination of relatively low rainfall, low soil fertility and a moderate maritime climate which results in low yielding vines producing highly coloured and intensely flavoured wines.

Tim Adams
CLARE VALLEY

Tim Adams

Clare Valley, South Australia

Est. 1985

Owner and winemaker, Tim Adams, began his career in the wine industry as a cellarhand at the Stanley Wine Company in 1975, steadily working his way through the ranks to become winemaker in 1981 following graduation. The first inclination to leave came in 1985, when Tim and his wife were approached by local cooper Bill Wray to form a partnership of the two families to make wine and small oak casks. The first wines under the Adams & Wray label were released in September 1986. 2025 marked Tim's 50th Vintage.

Tim Adams' began during a grape shortage in 1986, relying on 10 tonnes of Shiraz from a neighbour to release its first wine under the Adams and Wray label. Following the dissolution of the partnership in 1987, the winery was renamed Tim Adams Wines, coinciding with the purchase of its Warenda Road site in Clare and the arrival of Tim's daughter, Frances. By 1988, the cellar door was opened, and the first grapes were crushed on-site, marking the start of decades of growth, evolution, and commitment to sustainability and the Australian wine community. Tim Adams, raised in Clare Valley, began his career in 1975 under the mentorship of the renowned Mick Knappstein at the Stanley Wine Company, eventually releasing his first wines under his own label in 1986. Their relationship, with Mr Mick as Tim's last apprentice, continued until his passing in 1997, leaving a legacy of passion, hard work, and dedication that defines the progressive family winery today.

The Aberfeldy Shiraz is the flagship wine of Tim Adams Wines and has long been synonymous with quality, often referred to as "Clare Valley's Grange." Crafted from century-old, low-yielding Shiraz vines in the warmer eastern reaches of Clare Valley, it exemplifies elegance, intensity, and the region's terroir. This iconic Australian Shiraz delivers a rich palate of dark fruits, chocolate, and spice, with velvety tannins and exceptional structure, making it ideal for long-term cellaring. Consistently earning Gold medals at the International Wine Challenge and maintaining a Langton's Classification, the Aberfeldy Shiraz represents the pinnacle of Clare Valley winemaking and the unwavering dedication of Tim Adams Wines to producing world-class wines.

Zonte's Footstep

McLaren Vale, Fleurieu, Barossa, Langhorne Creek,
Adelaide Hills, South Australia Est. 2003

Fun, Cheeky, Sassy, Adventurous... Introducing Zonte's Footstep, a proudly independent, innovative and free-spirited wine business. They produce wines just like them: lively, bold and full of spirit. The grapes are adventurous in style and sourced from the classic regions of McLaren Vale, Barossa, Langhorne Creek and the Adelaide Hills. Zonte's believe in inclusion not exclusion, from the 2020 vintage, all of their wines are proudly vegan friendly.

Zonte's Footstep take pride in their wines, from the ground up to the moment they are opened and consumed. Everything is handled with care to offer authentic, high-quality wine – the most expressive they can put in bottle. Co-Owners Anna Fisher & Brad Rey (Brad is also the vigneron) are passionate about the true character derived from the vineyards the wines come from and the close interaction with Mother Nature which they believe tells the true story of a wine.

On 15 August 2003, Zonte's Footstep vintaged its first wines and, as is tradition in the wine industry, looked to history—and prehistory—for its name. In 1893, a vineyard was planted with Zante currants to produce table grapes for Adelaide's growing population. By the 1920s, the vineyard was replanted with wine-producing varieties of Shiraz and Cabernet Sauvignon, which were eventually used to craft Zonte's first wine. As a tribute to the vineyard's journey (and due to naming regulations that prevent referencing grape varieties not in the wine), the "A" in Zante was changed to an "O," creating Zonte's. In 1999, a group of wine industry mates purchased the vineyard, planting Viognier, Sangiovese, and other exciting grape varieties to experiment with. While replanting, large boulders with fossilised footprints of the Diprotodon, the largest known marsupial, were discovered. This unique fossilised footprint cemented the name and symbolised the journey Zonte's Footstep continues today.

After the death of Edmond Thery in 1937, his sons and grandsons initiated a toll manufacturing sparkling wines production. During the 80's the company started to experiment emerging technologies of sparkling wines such as the Charmat Method.

The Champagne House Forget-Brimont is in Ludes, a small village with Premier Cru classification in the heart of Montagne de Reims, one of the most prestigious terroirs in the Champagne region. Led by 6th generation family member, Michel Forget, the Maison works 20 hectares with Grand Cru (Mailly, Verzenay) or Premier Cru (Chigny-les-Roses, Ludes, Montbré, Sermiers, Taissy, Villers-Allerand) classification, mainly planted to Pinot Noir. The Forget family have worked the vines for over 200 years, making their first Champagnes in 1929.

Forget-Brimont adopted a sustainable viticulture and minimal-intervention method 20 years ago. A non-interventionist winemaking approach has been adopted to allow full expression of the terroirs and varieties. Only the first press (la cuvée) is used and only the best of that pressing is kept, adhering to the commitment to quality and purity. Blending with a high proportion (40% to 50%) of reserve wines of almost 10 different years in each cuvée, except Vintages, adds depth and complexity. The Champagnes then undergo a lengthy secondary fermentation 15m underground in traditional chalk cellars for between 30 months & 10 years.

Arnaud is hands on all along the way, selecting the origin of the grapes, overseeing the winemaking process, choosing the type of barrels and ageing time for each individual wine. In 2017, Arnaud & Laure took the first step towards having their own estate produced wines acquiring a small vineyard in Côte de Beaune. 2022 saw the completion of their stunning new winemaking facility on the same site. They recently purchased a second vineyard in Meursault. Their philosophy is to respect and promote the complexity of the Burgundy wine region, producing terroir driven wines.

Domaine Gautheron is located in the tiny village of Fley, surrounded by Chablis' eastern hills in Northern Burgundy. It covers 28 hectares on some of Chablis' best terroirs. The estate, created in 1809, is family owned and operated and has been for more than seven generations. Today Cyril, supported by father Alain and wife Agnes, is making some of the appellation's finest wines. Gautheron focuses on expression of terroir to make graceful wines which respect the crisp and traditional characteristics of Chablis.

Domaine Gautheron

Chablis, Burgundy, France

Est. 1809

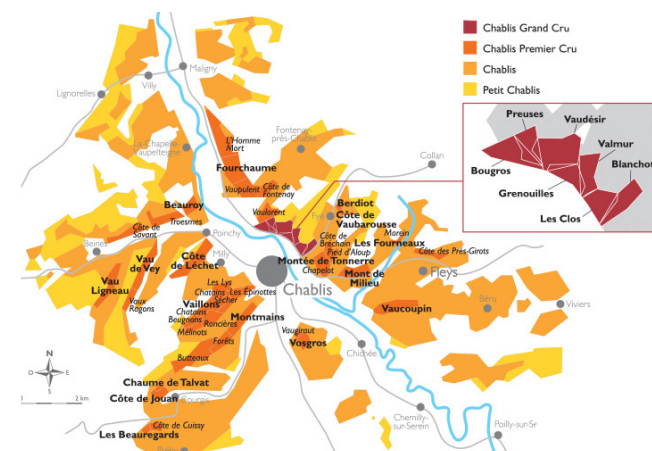

Cyrils wines can be drunk in their youth or after aging. He likes to balance exotic flavors with crispiness. They are the opposite of an austere Chablis, yet they age incredibly well. The wines are always on the fresh side, with ripe acidity, and that classic Chablis minerality. The appellation of Chablis is nestled in the Northern part of Burgundy between Paris and Dijon. It has a semi-continental climate, characterised by hot summers and cold, harsh winters. The wines are characterised by purity of fruit and lean, steely acidity. Chablis is divided in to four categories in order of ascension in quality: Petit Chablis, Chablis, Chablis Premier Cru and Chablis Grand Cru.

Nestled in the quaint wine-growing village of Fleys, just 4.5 km from Chablis, the estate is rooted in the Kimmeridgian terroir. The Kimmeridgian, a Jurassic-era soil rich in marine fossils like small comma-shaped oysters, lends the wines their signature mineral character. This unique geology, coupled with the area's hot summers, harsh winters, and frost-prone springs, creates an ideal environment for cultivating Chardonnay. Certified "HVE" (High Environmental Value) Level 3, the estate is dedicated to sustainable viticulture, allowing the terroir to express itself fully.

Chablis - Named after the historic wine producing town that lies in the centre, Chablis is light and dry, famous for its crisp acidity and minerality. The Gautheron Chablis is made from 15-55 years old vines grown on north and northeasterly slopes. Floral notes, stonefruit, fresh butter, balance of liveliness, maturity, elegance and richness.

With Beaujolais in full revival, he came out of retirement to found Domaine du Vieux Bourg in 2021, still on the family vineyards, dedicating one last slice of his life to this beautiful profession as a simple winemaker seeking the 'best' rather than the 'most.'

allowing the wines to develop complex flavours and aromas that are reflective of the Beaujolais' natural environment. Certified for High Environmental Value (HEV) since 2020, the estate emphasises sustainable practices, ensuring that its viticulture is in harmony with nature, protecting biodiversity and reducing environmental impact.

Domaine du Vieux Bourg's 35 hectares of vineyards span five appellations: Beaujolais Blanc, Morgon, Chénas, Régnié, and Beaujolais Rouge. These vineyards benefit from the region's distinctive terroir, characterised by a mix of granite, limestone, and quartz soils. The varied topography, along with the vineyards' exposure to sun and cooling breezes, creates optimal conditions for growing Gamay. The estate's high-altitude vineyards contribute to a slower grape ripening process,

● Côtes du Rhône AOP	2023 → 2024	17.20	12 pk	Raspberry · Blackberry · Red fruits · Pepper · Spice

The Dupond family has a long and respected history in the wine industry, with roots in Burgundy and the Rhône Valley. In 1880, Joanny Dupond expanded the family's vineyards from Beaujolais to the Côtes du Rhône by founding the La Renjardière vineyard just north of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. This 309-acre vineyard, previously an oak forest called La Renjarde, was transformed by Joanny, who personally planted each vine. Today, Hervé Dupond oversees La Renjardière, and he has broadened production by building strong partnerships with longtime wine growers and carefully selecting the best plots for quality. The vineyard's unique terroir, rich in sand, clay, limestone, and rounded pebbles, reflects that of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, enhancing the authenticity and reputation of its wines across Europe.

Founded in 1926, Domaine Fournier Père et Fils is located in the small wine-growing village of Verdigny, in the heart of the Sancerre appellation. The estate covers 39 hectares across 165 plots, benefiting from some of Sancerre's finest terroirs. Committed to sustainable, organic practices, the winery focuses on preserving the unique qualities of its soils. Fournier Père et Fils blends tradition with innovation to produce renowned wines that capture the essence of French heritage.

The vineyards of Domaine Fournier Père et Fils are evenly distributed across the three distinct terroirs of Sancerre, offering access to a diverse range of soils, slopes, and exposures. Located in a cool-climate region, Domaine Fournier follows organic (non-certified) methods that minimize chemical use. The region benefits from a variety of soils—Silex (flint), Caillottes (chalky limestone rocks), and Terres Blanches (calcareous marl)—as well as the unique microclimates created by its hills and the Loire River that runs along its right side. Starting in Sancerre, Fournier Père et Fils has gradually expanded its vineyards throughout the region, guided by the Burgundian philosophy of focusing on the distinct characteristics each vineyard and soil contributes to the wine. Today, Fournier produces a diverse range of wines, from entry-level offerings to single-vineyard selections, showcasing the remarkable variety of their terroirs.

Established in 1836, Gustave Lorentz is now one of the major family-owned fine wine producers in Alsace. Today, sixth generation family member Georges Lorentz holds the reins of the family business as current custodian. In the future, Georges can count on his three daughters to pursue the family tradition. Founded in 1836, Gustave Lorentz owns 50 hectares of land on the hillsides of Bergheim in the heart of the Alsace wine region, 12.8 hectares of which are classified Grand Cru Altenberg de Bergheim, and 1.75 hectares Grand Cru Kanzlerberg. In 1995, Georges Lorentz took over the business, conscious of the current and future environmental challenges, decided to create a new working ethos within Maison Gustave Lorentz by converting to organic growing in 2009. All of the wines from their own vineyards have been certified organic since the 2012 vintage.

“Our Riesling Grand Cru Altenberg de Bergheim, whatever the vintage, is a complex wine with a full-body and great concentration, set off by crisp, delicate aromatics. There are aromas of citrus fruit and a touch of minerality, the acidity is elegant and well-balanced, and there is a slightly savoury note on the finish. It is an expressive, harmonious wine that encapsulates all our knowledge and experience. It is a wine for laying down, so we release Riesling Grand Cru Altenberg de Bergheim after a minimum of 5 years resting in bottle in our cellars so that our customers can appreciate its full potential”

Lu Celu is a contemporary Sicilian range created by Occiduo, a collective project uniting a group of producers with a shared vision to bring authentic Sicilian wines to the world. Rooted in respect for the land and a commitment to quality, the wines express simplicity, elegance, and a clear sense of identity, capturing the essence of Sicily in every bottle.

Sicily’s unique terroir is shaped by the interplay of land, wind, and sky, where intense sunlight and cooling sea breezes create ideal conditions for viticulture. Sourced from vineyards across Western Sicily, the wines reflect a diversity of soils from clay to limestone and distinct microclimates, resulting in styles that are vibrant, fresh, and expressive of place.

A focus on preserving the purity of local grape varieties is central to the philosophy, with varieties such as Grillo, Nero d’Avola, and Nerello Mascalese crafted to highlight both varietal character and regional identity. Gentle handling and stainless steel maturation maintain freshness and clarity, producing wines with bright fruit, balanced structure, and approachability.

Today, Lu Celu represents the modern face of Sicilian winemaking, where tradition and innovation come together to create wines that are accessible, expressive, and true to their origins, offering a genuine taste of the island’s landscape and culture.

Starting in the early 1980s, Ugo Lequio released his first bottles of wine following rigorous fruit selection from the six hectare Cascina Nuova vineyard. This historic property is located on the sun-drenched Gallina Hill that was once part of the Neive Conti Riccardi Candiani patrimony and now belongs to the Marcarino family. The Gallina Hill is one of the most interesting terroirs in Piedmont with the soil and micro-climate both extraordinary for cultivation of the vine, in particular Nebbiolo and Barbera, with vine plantings dating back to the 1950's, 60's and 70's.

Thanks to experience and experimentation in both the vineyard and the winery, Ugo has emerged as one of the protagonists of the revolutionary shift that prizes quality wine over quantity.

Old vines, south facing slopes and extremely low yields coupled with traditional wine making techniques produce elegant wines fit for aging. Ugo's personal conviction is that class and elegance are tangible in a great wine only if that wine is given sufficient time, in a stress-free atmosphere, to evolve. For this reason, Ugo insists on giving his wines a long and deserved rest before they are released.

Pico Maccario is led by brothers Pico and Vitaliano Maccario. The winery is a symbol of modernity both in the vineyard management and the production of wines. The goal is to reach the highest possible quality and this begins with precious teamwork in the vineyard and continues to the cellar. The winery dedicates itself to technological advancements, as if well calibrated, innovative technology, is the main road for obtaining the highest productive quality.

In the Langhe area Pico Maccario runs Nebbiolo vineyards in the comune of Neive, Serralunga d'Alba and Barolo, this last one with the prestigious Cannubi single vineyard, well-known and recognized as the oldest of Italy (1752) as well one of the most important in the world. The terroirs of the Langhe area, where Barolo and Barbaresco are produced, are very old: they date

Founded by Massimo Gianolli and Stefano Falla, La Collina dei Ciliegi sits on the hills of Valpantena, in the pristine area of Valpolicella. The vineyard, nearly 700 meters above sea level, was named “The Hill of Cherry Trees” for the cherry trees that once surrounded it. Committed to sustainable methods, the winery combines family traditions with modern techniques to create exceptional wines.

La Collina dei Ciliegi was founded on a promise by Massimo Gianolli to honor the Valpantena region and the village of Erbin, where his father Armando was warmly welcomed. Inspired by this legacy, Massimo aims to craft wines that reflect the area’s rich heritage and natural beauty. Situated in the pre-Alpine Valpantena Valley, the vineyards benefit from unique soils and climate. This approach recognizes that great wine requires time, respect for natural cycles, and an appreciation for craftsmanship. They are committed to producing wines that are restrained, pure and honor regional traditions while setting a new standard for excellence.

Aspiring to excellence, fourth generation growers, brothers Gaetano and Pio Francesco Tamellini have earned the estate an outstanding reputation as one of only 24 estate bottled growers and producers of authentic Soave. They have 34 hectares of Garganega (27 ha Soave DOC and 7 ha Soave Classico) that lie in the classic zone of production, San Vittore on the foothills. Soave produced here is medium-light bodied, has full flavour with good concentrations of citrus, almond and floral characters and retains fresh acidity.

The Vineyards sit between 60–200 metres above sea level across the sites of Costeggiola and San Vittore, with soils ranging from calcareous through to volcanic, contributing both freshness and mineral complexity. A mix of traditional Veronese pergola (average vine age 60 years) and Guyot-trained vines (average 20 years) allows for balance between concentration and precision.

The estate follows a low-intervention, sustainability-focused approach, with no herbicides or fertilisers used and ongoing trials in biodynamic-inspired soil health practices. Harvest is carried out by hand, with fruit rapidly cooled to preserve aromatics before gentle whole-bunch pressing under nitrogen to prevent oxidation. Fermentation takes place at low temperatures in stainless steel, followed by extended lees ageing with bâtonnage to build texture and depth.

Soave DOC wines are bottled after a minimum of four months on lees, while the single-vineyard expressions see extended ageing both in tank and bottle.

Owned by third generation vigneron Giancarlo Moretti Polegato, this family-centric business has been devoted to wine culture for generations and continues to foster these ancient traditions. The estate has 65 hectares under vine including coveted ground in the heartland of Prosecco including Valdobbiadene and Cartizze.

Villa Sandi is committed to preserving the environment and prioritizing sustainability, from vineyard cultivation to the store shelf. The company harnesses renewable energy through an on-site hydroelectric power plant powered by the Brentella Canal, producing 100 kWh daily, even on weekends. This canal also supports vineyard irrigation and optimal cellar conditions for sparkling wine aging. Villa Sandi complements this with a photovoltaic system, operational since 2012, and proudly holds a Biodiversity Friend certification, reflecting low-impact viticulture practices that protect local ecosystems. Through collaboration and innovation, Villa Sandi continues to champion Italian quality wines and environmental stewardship.

Situated in the heart of Tuscany, Poggiotondo began in 1968 when passionate agriculturalist Carlo Antonini, bought a property historically owned by ancient noble family Conti Guidi. His passion was passed on to his son Alberto, who together with wife Alessandra, now run the family winery. Certified organic since 2014, the Antonini family aim to valorize the territory in respect of the Tuscan wine growing tradition. The families vineyards are located in the picturesque hills East of Florence, some 40km from the Ligurian Sea.

Poggiotondo is immersed in an ancient farming landscape with lots of biodiversity: vineyards, olive trees, figs tree, old fruit plants, very ancient oak trees, cypress, bushes of raspberries and blackberries and gorse for an exceptional natural beauty. The focus in the vineyards is on native grape varieties; Sangiovese, Canaiolo, Colorino and Trebbiano, as per the original “Chianti Recipe”.

San Polo is a progressive estate in Montalcino, where tradition and innovation combine to produce refined and site-driven expressions of Sangiovese that capture the essence of this renowned appellation. The vineyards are positioned between 400–450 metres above sea level on poor, stony soils rich in galestro, a schistous clay that naturally limits vigour and yields, resulting in wines of greater concentration, structure, and aromatic precision.

A meticulous approach to parcelling sees each vineyard block managed individually, allowing the estate to respond to subtle variations in soil, exposure, and microclimate, ultimately maximising the potential of a truly distinctive terroir. This detailed vineyard work translates directly into the wines, where purity of fruit, balance, and a clear sense of origin are consistently expressed across each cuvée.

The estate is led by Marilisa Allegrini, one of Italy's most influential wine figures and the first Italian woman to appear on the cover of Wine Spectator, whose vision brought her from Valpolicella to Tuscany to expand her family's winemaking legacy. Together with her daughters, Carlotta and Caterina, she has shaped San Polo into a forward-thinking, certified organic winery grounded in sustainability, innovation, and respect for the land.

Today, San Polo stands as a benchmark for modern Montalcino, where environmentally conscious viticulture is matched by a state-of-the-art, bio-architecturally designed cellar that minimises impact while enhancing quality.

● Cabernet Franc Costa Toscana Il Debbio	2021	62.35	6 pk	Mineral · Fresh · Dynamic · Elegant
● Cabernet Franc Costa Toscana Limite	2021	112.06	6 pk	Fresh · Dynamic · Powerful · Elegant

Emiliano Falsini was born and raised in Tuscany, Italy. He graduated in Viticulture and Oenology from the University of Florence before continuing his studies with specialist oenology training at the University of Bordeaux. Through his work as a consultant with the Matura Group, he has gained extensive international experience, while in Italy he works closely with leading producers including Graci, Girolamo Russo and Giacomo Fenocchio.

Falsini's personal project focuses on small-scale production from selected vineyard sites. In Tuscany, he works with Cabernet Franc sourced from Castagneto Carducci on the Tuscan Coast. The vineyards sit at approximately 100–120 metres above sea level and are planted to vines of around 30 years of age. The wines are produced through parcel-by-parcel vinification with spontaneous fermentation using indigenous yeasts.

Il Debbio is made from selected Cabernet Franc parcels and is vinified separately before ageing in a combination of cocchiopesto amphora (58%) and oak barrels (42%). The wine shows a clear varietal profile with freshness and mineral character.

Limite Costa Toscana is produced from a selection of the best grapes and follows the same approach of separate parcel vinification and spontaneous fermentation. It is aged in small oak barrels, resulting in a wine of structure, concentration and varietal definition.

Both wines are 100% Cabernet Franc and reflect a site-focused approach, with an emphasis on precision in both vineyard selection and winemaking.
